Re: Franklin County International Festival
Saturday, October 14, 2023
Lakeview Park, Frankfort KY
4 p.m. – 8 p.m.

We are extremely excited to announce the inaugural Franklin County International Festival coming later this year! This event will celebrate the rich and diverse cultures that can be found in Franklin County and around the Commonwealth of Kentucky. As I'm sure you are aware, our state motto is: "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." That is the driving theme behind our Inaugural International Festival. Although we may all come from different backgrounds, we are strongest when we come together. This will become an annual celebration of the uniqueness that is Franklin County and a reflection of our community. This celebration will highlight all nationalities and celebrate not only the people who make up our community, but restaurants and local merchants that we have right here in Franklin County!

We are planning to have a wide variety of entertainment, a vast food selection, and our very own Kentucky State University drum-line will be present. There will be more than enough for kids to enjoy!

If you, your business or non-profit would be interested in having an informational/educational booth, provide entertainment or be a vendor, please contact Mitzi Geveden at the Franklin County Fiscal Court at: mitzi.geveden@franklincounty.ky.gov or at (502)875-8751 ext. 1325 for further information.

Please visit our website for additional registration and sponsorship information related to the International Festival: <https://franklincounty.ky.gov/international-festival/>

We look forward to having you be a part of this exciting community event and making this a new annual tradition for Franklin County!

Sincerely,

Mitzi Geveden
